The Daily Gazetteer.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 15. 1736.

No. 407.

Yeſterday arrived a Mail from France.

THEY have a Report at Paris, founded on ſome Letters from Turky, that there had been a bloody Engagement between a Detachment of the Ruſſians and the Tartars of the Crim, wherein the latter were defeated and intirely diſperſed; and that the old Kan of that Country, who was depoſed ſome Years ago by the Porte, had taken the Opportunity of the confuſed State of Affairs to return into the Country, and was gone to join the Count de Munich, after having muſter'd up a Body of 16,000 Men.

They have alſo had an Account at Paris from Conſtantinople by the Way of Vienna, that the Ottoman Porte is in a melancholy State, the Populace threatning to riſe and ſet Fire to the Seraglio.

They write from the Frontiers of Dauphiny, that the Reduction of the King's Troops is ſuſpended, and that the Inſpectors are to remain there till farther Orders.

The Five grand Houſes that are building at Compiegne, which are deſign'd to be Offices for the Miniſters, in the room of thoſe in the King's Apartments, are in a great Forwardneſs, above 800 Workmen being therein employ'd. The Landlords have had 184,000 Livres paid to them for the Ground, and when the Buildings are finiſhed, they are to be Keepers thereof, with a Salary during their Lives only.

They write from Naples, that a Machine being erected in a Square of that City, finely illuminated with Flambeaus, Lamps, &c. by way of Rejoicing, for the Liquefaction of St. Januarius's Blood there, Don Carlos and his whole Court repair'd to ſee it; and to prevent any Diſorder from the great Number of Coaches upon that Occaſion, he order'd all the Avenues of the Square to be ſtopped up; but the Duke de Popoli coming thither in his Coach, attended by two others in which there were Ladies, and not thinking the Order extended to him, refuſed to be ſtopped, and ſtruck one of the Guards with his Cane, but he was repulſed; which News being carried to Court, he was ordered to ſurrender himſelf Priſoner to the Caſtle of St. Elmo; and two other Noblemen, who happened to ſpeak unhandſomely to the Judges of the Severity of this Order, were alſo commanded to deliver themſelves Priſoners, the one to the Caſtle de Ovo, and the other to Caſtle Nuovo.

They write from Rome, that a Jew having been whipped there and turn'd out of the City for ſome Crime, as he went about crying and lamenting that he knew not where to go, and that he had no Money, he met a Prieſt, one of the Pope's Chaplains, who inquiring what was the Cauſe of his Diſtreſs, and the Jew telling him of his Diſgrace and Miſery, the Prieſt, in Pity to him, gave him Charity, and exhorted him to truſt in Providence and the Mercy of God: To which the Jew anſwered, that he was inclin'd to turn Chriſtrian; of which the Cardinal Vicar having Notice, ſent for him to the Catechumens, where the Jew alſo deſir'd that his Wife and three Children might alſo be brought to him, in hopes that they too would be converted.

Edinburgh, Oct. 7. Five of the late Rioters, were laſt Night and early this Morning, taken and committed Priſoners to the Caſtle, whereby we ſoon hope for a Detection of that horrid and unprecedented Act of rebellious Inſolence againſt the Government and Laws of the Land.

The laſt Poſt from Inverneſs, brought us the following Reſolution againſt Smuggling, unanimouſly entered into, and ſubſcribed by the whole Traders and Freemen, Burgeſſes of that Borough.

Inverneſs, Sept. 29. In Preſence of Thomas Alves, Dean of Guild, and his Council, and in a full Meeting of the Guildry. The Dean of Guild, and the Brethren, having taken to their Conſideration, the Letter from the Annual Committee of the Convention of Royal Boroughs, for preventing the pernicious Practice of Smuggling; and being fully perſuaded, that the ſaid abominable Practice (by which all fair Trade and honeſt Induſtry is diſcouraged) is deſtructive to the Nation, ruinous to the State of Boroughs, and conſuming to the individual Traders who are concerned in it, have, from a tender Regard to the Sufferings of their impoveriſhed Country, to the Intereſt and Privileges of the Royal Boroughs, and to the Welfare of themſelves and their Brethren the fair Traders of the Kingdom, unanimouſly reſolved and promiſed, like as they unanimouſly reſolve, and firmly and ſolemnly engage and promiſe to each other, that from this Day forward, neither they, nor any of them, will be concerned, directly nor indirectly, in the running of foreign Goods, nor in the tranſporting, ſecuring, purchaſing, uttering or vending run Goods, knowing them to be ſuch; and to the End, that by this honeſt Reſolution and Engagement, they may not be cut out of that foreign Trade, to which, by their Charter, and by the Laws of the Land, they have an undoubted Right, while Smuglers continue their vile Practices: They further reſolve, and ſolemnly promiſe and declare, That they, and each of them, will from this Day forward, lay him and themſelves out, to gain Intelligence of any Smugling that may be unhappily attempted, and will give Information and Aſſiſtance, from Time to Time, to the proper Officers, that ſuch Goods may be ſeized and condemned, and that the Penalties may be recovered from the Offenders. And laſt by this Reſolution (which is only meant for the general Good, and for Self-preſervation) any of their unwary Neighbours ſhould ſuffer; they hereby authorize the Dean of Guild, to acquaint their loving Friends and Neighbours of the Burghs of Nairn, Forreſs, Elgin and Banff, on the South Side of the Murray Frith, and of the Burghs of Fortroſe, Dingwall, Tain and Dornoch, on the North Side of the Frith, therewith, by tranſmitting to them ſeverally a Copy hereof; and to the End, that the Unanimity of the Brethren of the Guild, who have now come to this Reſolution, may appear, and that the like Unanimity may be in all Time hereafter continued; the ſaid Dean of Guild and his Brethren, have ſubſcribed this Act and Reſolution; and have further enacted and reſolved, That in Time coming, every Perſon who may be made free of the Guild, ſhall, upon his Admiſſion, ſubſcribe the ſame.

COPY of the circular Letter ſent to the ſeveral Burghs before-mentioned.

Inverneſs, Sept. 29. 1736.

Loving Friends and Neighbours,

I AM directed by the Guildry of this Burgh, to acquaint you with the Reſolution they have this Day taken, by tranſmitting to you a Copy thereof. They flatter themſelves, the Reſolution and Motives to it will appear ſo laudable, that they ſhall have your hearty Concurrence and Aſſiſtance, towards making it effectual and univerſal, that the Privileges of the Royal Boroughs, may no longer be deſtroyed by a villainous Practice that Ruins the Nation, and renders fair Trade abſolutely impracticable.

I am, with Reſpect,

Loving Friends and Neighbours,

Your Well-wiſher and moſt humble Servant,

THO. ALVES.

Dumbarton, Sept. 29. This being the Day fixed for the Annual Election of Magiſtrates and Counſellors, the Hon. Col. John Campbel of Mammore, was unanimouſly re-elected Provoſt; James Duncanſon of Garſhake, and Humphrey Colquhoun, Baillies; Gillis Mitchel, Dean of Guild, and Patrick Wilſon, Treaſurer, for the Year enſuing. The Magiſtrates and Council, did earneſtly enjoin and recommend to all within their Bounds, ſtrictly to obſerve the Laws made againſt retaling of ſpirituous Liquors, and the pernicious and infamous Practice of Smugling; and that the Inhabitants be aiding and aſſiſting to the Officers of the Exciſe and Cuſtoms in the Diſcharge of their Duty; and declared, they would give their hearty Concurrence in proſecuting the Contraveeners, and an additional Reward to that promiſed by the Government for diſcovering the Offenders.

John Cockran of Glaſgow, Accomplice with John Caldwells, in Cuſtody for robbing the Weſt Mail, has alſo been apprehended, and a Warrant is ſent to fetch him to Edinburgh.

Laſt Week Mr. Alderman Robert Wharton of Durham, was choſe Mayor of that City, in the room of John Grey, Eſq; upon which Occaſion, the Citizens expreſs'd their Satisfaction, by ringing of Bells, Illuminations, and other Marks of Joy.

At the Election of Mayor for Newcaſtle upon Tine, the Struggle lay between William Carre, Eſq; and Nicholas Fenwicke, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives; but the latter was elected, and appointed Mr. Matthew Bell, jun. Sheriff.

Laſt Week alſo Alderman Holmes was ſworn Mayor of the Corporation of Kendal, in the room of Alderman Baxter.

LONDON.

Yeſterday both Houſes of Parliament met at Weſtminſter, purſuant to their laſt Prorogation, and were, (by Virtue of a Commiſſion ſigned by her Majeſty, as Guardian of the Realm, directed to the Right Hon the Lord Chancellor, the Right Hon. the Earl of Wilmington, Preſident of his Majeſty's Council, his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, and others) further prorogued to Thurſday the 25th of November next; at which Time, a Proclamation will be iſſued out, for calling the Parliament to ſit for the Diſpatch of Buſineſs about the Middle of January.
